

Not-For-Profit

The professionals at Maloney + Novotny have a solid, in-depth understanding of not-for-profit organizations and the missions that drive their existence. Our experience working with more than 150 not-for-profit organizations enables Maloney + Novotny to deliver a comprehensive and effective audit that generates a report that is meaningful to all users of the financial statements.

Our specialized expertise allows us to successfully and efficiently work with the following types of organizations:

- + Higher education / colleges and universities
- + Private elementary / high schools
- + National, regional and local trade associations
- + Cultural institutions
- + Voluntary health and welfare organizations
- + Behavioral health care
- + Governmental entities
- + Foundations
- + Religious organizations

While we perform traditional audit services, we also get involved at a deeper level with:

- + Reviewing internal control systems
- + Assisting with strategic planning
- + Performing operational reviews
- + Information system assessments

Our expertise does not end with audit and accounting issues. We also have a team of dedicated tax professionals that assists with complicated matters such as unrelated business income activities, employment taxes and the excess benefit transaction rules. We specialize in providing sound advice on tax matters for tax-exempt clients, including paying special attention to the Form 990 filing. Because of the public inspection rules, we treat each client's Form 990 as its most important public relations document.
